

SENATE VOTE: HANN AMENDMENT

The final voting record from the Minnesota Senate for the Hann Amendment that sought to reinstate the 5-year waiting period on wolf hunting and trapping in an effort to stop the hunt. While the votes on the Game and Fish Bill in the House and the Senate involved other complicated issues besides the wolf hunt, the Hann Amendment vote reflects how senators actually feel about the wolf hunt, and their perception of the value of wolves to Minnesota.

Voting for this amendment in the affirmative was voting against a wolf hunting and trapping season. Unfortunately, an amendment to reinstate the 5-year waiting period was never introduced in the Minnesota House of Representatives.

See how your senator voted and ask them about their position on hunting and trapping wolves. If this is an important issue to you, let them know.
